

30 MINS & UNDER ATTRACTION GUIDE

Travel time may vary due to traffic.

1. THE SNAIL'S PACE CAFE & BIKE HIRE 0.7MI.

The Snail's Pace camel trail cafe with bike hire. Off grid, quirky and eco friendly. Serving delicious local food, coffee, breakfast and lunches... Did I mention their cream teas are AMAZING!

2. CAMEL TRAIL 0.7MI.

The Camel Trail is an 18 mile surfaced and virtually level multi use trail which passes through some of the most spectacular countryside in the south west. The best part is the start of it is only a 5 minute walk from Camp De Lank and you finish in Padstow. You can hire bikes from the Snail's Pace Cafe.

3. CAMEL VALLEY 8.0MI.

Award winning Camel Valley Vineyard, in Bodmin, Cornwall, produces red, white and sparkling wines. Tours, tastings, and wine by the bottle or glass are available. You can also cycle here down the Camel Trail.

4. BODMIN MOOR

From windswept hills to wooded valleys, prehistoric hill forts to 19th century World Heritage sites, Bodmin Moor has a wealth of things to do. Put your walking boots on and explore.

5. DELFORD (OR DELPHI) BRIDGE 2.4MI.

As a child I would spend hours playing in the shallow waters of the pool next to the bridge. Delphi is a great place for picnics and a paddle.

6. HALLAGENNA RIDING 2.2MI.

Horse riding and pony trekking for all abilities, from aged 5 upwards. Novice rides are an hour long and are escorted across Bodmin Moor at a pace suitable for the experience of the party riding.

7. GOLDEN FRY 5.1MI.

I may be biased but the Golden Fry serves the best fish and chips in the SW! Give yourself a night off from the BBQ and head to Callywith Roundabout, weekday lunchtimes (12-1:30pm) and evenings (5pm-7pm).

8. PADSTOW 17.1MI.

Padstow is a charming working fishing port surrounded by glorious sandy beaches, an array of local shops and food.

Foodie advice: Prawn On The Lawn, Pint of Padstow (Beer), Chough Bakery, Greens Of Padstow

9. CAMEL CREEK ADVENTURE PARK 14.2MI.

Best Children's Theme Park 2017 in the South West Enterprise Awards 2017

With wild rides, new attractions and masses of indoor entertainment, Camel Creek is a must for adventurers of all ages and animal lovers shouldn't leave without meeting the region's cutest furry friends or gentlest 'Shire' giants.

10. BOSCASTLE 12.4MI.

The picturesque harbour of Boscastle is one of Cornwall's most romantic places. The long narrow valley runs down to a steep and rocky entrance to the raging sea. Boscastle is in good supply of yummy food, walks and cute shops.

Foodie advice: Boscastle Farmshop (serves a great veggie breakfast), The Rocket Store.

11. POLZEATH 12.5MI.

A small village with an award winning beach that attracts a multitude of surfers due to its easily accessible location and long slow breaking consistent waves. You can also catch the ferry to Rock from Padstow, I recommend eating in The Mariners if you decide to go.
Foodie advice: The Rum Bar

(A MUST SEE!, Surfside, Flo's Kitchen.)

12. PORT ISAAC 9.4MI.

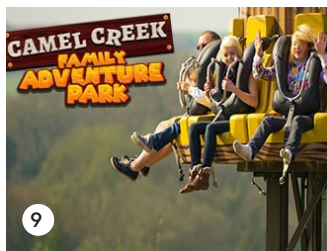

One of the treasures of north Cornwall, Port Isaac is a vibrant and picturesque fishing village nestling in a steep sided valley. It retains its charm by remaining unchanged from its days of fishing, slate export and smuggling in the previous century.

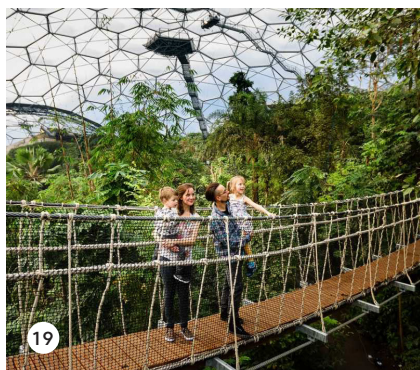

Foodie advice: Outlaw's New Road, The Mote, Just shellfish - Sustainable and local fish delivered to our camp or collected from Port Isaac.

13. PORT GAVERNE 9.7MI.

Port Gaverne is a sheltered, narrow cove with plenty of sand at low tide. I love going here for a swim on a summer's day. Or join the Cornish Rock Tors for coasteering, sea kayaking, stand-up paddleboarding and sea swimming centres.

Foodie advice: Pilchards, Port Gaverne Hotel.

14. TINTAGEL 12.0MI.

Set high on the rugged North Cornwall coast, Tintagel has dramatic sea views both from the castle ruins on the headland and island. Nearby is Saint Nectan's Glen, a magical waterfall.

Foodie advice: Pengenna Pasties (my favourite pasty), Charlie's.

15. ST KEW INN 7.6MI.

Plenty of outdoor seating, fabulous food and refreshing beverages. St Kew Inn offers everything expected of a traditional village pub.

16. THE MARINERS 14.4MI.

The Mariners is open daily, offering cream teas and an all-day menu. The menus, designed by Paul and head chef Joe Rozier focus on British classics while championing the best of local produce. (They serve an AMAZING roast).

17. CARDINHAM WOODS 8.1MI.

The perfect location to recharge and relax, Cardinham Woods is found in central Cornwall and has everything you could want from an outdoor woodland adventure. Cardinham Woods has 4 walking trails, 3 cycling trails, play area, picnic area and a yummy cafe.

18. ST KEW FARM SHOP 5.9MI.

This farm shop has the best local produce, delicious food including wood fired pizza, and great coffee. There is a beautifully curated selection of coastal homewares too.

19. THE EDEN PROJECT 15.8MI.

More than just a huge, tropical garden, Eden is a gateway into the relationships between plants and people, and a fascinating insight into the story of mankind's dependence on plant life. A mind-blowing visitor attraction.

20. SAUCE

Incredible cocktails delivered to Camp De Lank.

21. COOKIE SCOTTORN CERAMICS 0.7MI.

Cookie Scottorn is a Ceramic artist, making planters and sculptures. All pieces are unique, so pop down to her studio for a little look.

22. OLD HILL BIKE PARK 6.1MI.

A family oriented bike park, with fully surfaced all weather trails ranging from green (balance bike suitable) through to black.
